New York, NY – May 7, 2007

If you were able to choose, would you walk the path of the mind or the heart? On Thursday, May 17th, from 6 to 9 p.m., Piero Manrique makes his debut and turns a “vision into reality.”

At Peer Gallery, each guest will be given the opportunity to decide between the mind and heart. They will be guided through a series of 5 stages of oil on canvas paintings. Each “Piero” piece describes the struggle between the mind and heart, and leads spectators through his inner thoughts, misgivings, and realizations.

Throughout the evening, the crowd will enjoy complimentary Kronenbourg 1664, Red & White wine, Newcastle Brown Ale, Peruvian delights, Peeled Snacks, and FUZE Beverages. At the end of the exotic evening, guests learn that the mind and heart are “Fuzed” together in harmony.

Hosted by SALONIQUE at Peer Gallery on 526 W. 26th St., suite 208, Piero Manrique introduces himself in the most dynamic fashion. Being born in Lima, Peru and moving to New York when he was 12, Piero searched for ways to combine his true passion for painting and making a contribution in his family. He moved forward and graduated from Parsons School of Design, and currently has found stability in both Art & Architecture. On May 17th, he unveils “Piero” (www.pieromanrique.com).

The event is FREE and open to the public. RSVP is required and Space is Limited. For more information, please contact Saloni Dhir at 646.964.4399, or send an email to info@salonique.biz.
